7. Dispute Handling Process

In a situation where the buyers are not satisfied with the purchase/order of a product/service at any merchant using PhonePe QR and/or PhonePe POS device, or PhonePe Paym may raise a dispute.

Scenarios for which dispute may be raised by the buyer:

- Did not receive a product/service.
- Received the product/service later than the maximum estimated delivery date provided by the merchant.
- Received the product but it was defective, damaged, had missing parts, or did not match the description provided by the merchant.
- Product was returned as per the agreement with the merchant but the merchant did not provide the agreed-upon reimbursement after receiving the product.
- Refusal by the merchant to honour the refund policy displayed on the merchant website/ mobile application.
- The amount charged is greater than the amount authorized for the purchase.

Process to raise dispute:

1. PhonePe recommends the buyers to first reach out directly to the merchant for the resolution of the issue(s) with their purchase/order.
2. In case there is no response or an unsatisfactory response from the merchant, buyers are recommended to reach out to their bank or NPCI (for UPI) to raise a chargeback o

Once the chargeback is successfully raised by the customer with their bank or NPCI, the acquiring bank will raise customer dispute with PhonePe, and PhonePe will then assist t the dispute issue. PhonePe will validate the details with the merchant and accordingly provide a response to the bank. The buyer's bank/NPCI will inform the buyer of the final either acceptance of the dispute, refusal of the dispute by the merchant.
